

Transforming Home-Based Palliative Care

Take the lead in transforming home-based palliative care services with the SPRINT-Implementation Collaborative (SPRINT Collaborative). As a member of the SPRINT Collaborative, your organization will reap the benefits of national competency standards, cutting-edge online courses in emotional intelligence, and dynamic communication tools. These resources can be strategically utilized to optimize your recruitment and training processes, evaluate your teams' performance, and develop customized in-house training for nurses and personal support workers providing home-based palliative care.

Benefits of the SPRINT-Collaborative

Knowledge Exchange

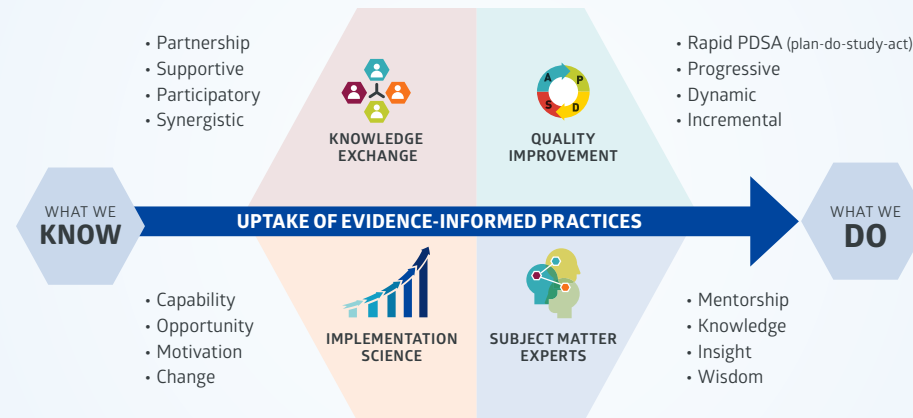

Teams learn from the experiences of others and gain insights into successful implementation strategies.

Accelerated Implementation

A structured, evidence-informed approach streamlines the implementation process.

Reduced Implementation Risks

Access resources, tools, and expertise to help you manage and mitigate risks.

Quality Improvement and Innovation

Use implementation science and quality improvement for rapid testing and change.

Networking and Partnership

Foster relationships with other healthcare leaders and stakeholders across the country.

Coaching and Support

Access customized coaching to support your team with effective implementation.

Your Journey to Excellence

SPRINT Collaboratives are designed to enable rapid, effective change requiring minimal investment and time to achieve significant results. Embark on a nine-month journey and benefit from the following opportunities:

- An in-person On-Boarding Educational Forum (September 2023)
- Virtual Learning Sessions for designing, testing, and evaluating materials
- Customized coaching sessions to address your unique challenges and opportunities
- Access to support materials through the online SPRINT portal
- A Capstone Summit to share your learnings and successes (June 2024)
